ENTERED ATTEST: PAIGE PARKER, CLERK DEFENDANT OCT 09 2019 CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY BY pam D.C.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

COMES NOW the Commonwealth of Kentucky and moves this Court to dismiss the above captioned and numbered indictment. In June of 2019, the Commonwealth was contacted by Dr. James Dennis Read and requested to dismiss this indictment and charges. The charges stem from checks being written on the account of Donald Read, the Defendant's uncle. Donald Read has since the filing of the charges become deceased. Dr. James Dennis Read is the only surviving heir to the Estate of Donald Read. Dr. James Dennis Read stated, it is his desire, and believes that it would be the desire of his brother Don, that all charges against Read Atkins be dropped. "This case needs to be put to rest and no further prosecution against Read should be pursued."

The Commonwealth proffers that they cannot prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the checks were not given to the Defendant, nor that the checks were written without permission. Either way the Commonwealth does not have a witness that can testify sufficiently to prove the Defendant's guilt in these matters. Based on the foregoing evidentiary issues and the request for the dismissal by the victim/legal representative of the victim, therefore

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that based on the request by the victim or legal representative of the victim and the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the above captioned and numbered indictment shall be dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any unserved arrest warrants shall be recalled, any bond previously posted shall be refunded, additionally, if the Defendant is incarcerated on this matter, he shall be immediately released.

SO ORDERED this 8th day of October, 2019.

Cirris Hatfield has been appointed the Special Prosecutor in the above case. Ms. Hatfield is the Prosecuting Attorney for the 42nd Circuit (Calloway and Marshall Counties). Ms. Hatfield asked for a status of the case and after pulling the file, I told her the Indictment/Bench Warrant had not been served and it was our understanding that the Defendant was out-of-state. Ms. Hatfield asked that we notify her once the Indictment has been served. Ms. Hatfield's phone number is 270-255-9695.

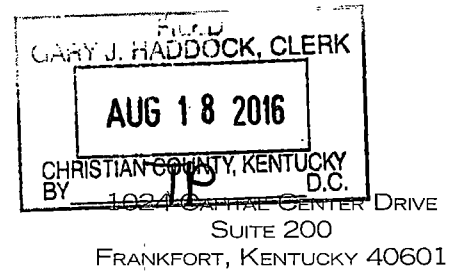

I am printing a copy of this email for the file.
